City pools, splash parks to open for summer

ADA – The City of Ada kicks off its official summer on Thursday, May 20, by opening its two public swimming pools and brand new splash parks.

The Wintersmith Park swimming pool hours of operation are 1-6:15 p.m. Monday to Saturday, and from 1-5:45 p.m. Sunday.

The Glenwood Park swimming pool is open from 1-5:45 p.m. seven days a week.

Fees at all pools are as follows:

- 12 & Under – $1.50 per day
- 13 & Over – $2 per day

New for this year are splash parks. The Wintersmith splash park is located inside the pool fence and may be accessed by paying admission to the pool. The Glenwood splash park is located where the kiddie pool used to be – west of the main pool – and is free of charge.

Season passes are available by contacting the City of Ada’s Recreation Department at (580) 436-8102. Passes include:

- Child – $50
- Adult – $55
- Family – $90

The pools are available for private parties in the evenings, for a maximum of one and a half hours. Available time slots are 6:30-8 p.m. and 8:15-9:45 p.m. Parties of up to 50 people cost $75 and parties with more than 50 people cost $100.

The Glenwood Park pool is scheduled to close on July 31. The Wintersmith Park pool is scheduled to close August 8.

The phone number at Glenwood pool is 436-8103 and the number at Wintersmith pool is 436-8104.
